

You are invited to a
Roundtable Discussion
Shari'a Law and State Law

Tuesday, 18th June 2013, 5-7.30pm
School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)
Russell Square, Brunei Gallery, Room B102

Admission is free. As places are limited,
please register by clicking here

5pm onwards: Tea (Brunei Suite)

6-7.30 pm: Roundtable with

Professor Charles Tripp (SOAS)
Professor Sami Zubaida (Birkbeck)
Dr Nathalie Bernard-Maugiron (IRD and IISMM/EHESS, Paris)
Professor Baroness Haleh Afshar (University of York)

Hosted by

Professor Robert Gleave, Director of the Islamic Reformulations Project, University of Exeter
and

Mr Ian Edge, Director of the Centre of Islamic and Middle East Law (CIMEL), SOAS

Sponsored by

Islamic Reformulations, A RCUK Global Uncertainties Research Programme based at the Institute of Arab and Islamic studies, University of Exeter

and

CIMEL (Centre of Islamic and Middle East Law, School of Oriental and African Studies)

For more details of the sponsors see:

www.islamicreformulations.net

<http://www.soas.ac.uk/cimel/>